Woodbury Library Is Reborn

Story and Photos by James R. Stecklow

Some of the Woodbury Public Library's growth since last fall can be seen at the former home of the Parker Academy in Woodbury. The building was given to the library by the late Mrs. Ada Parker, a member of the original Board of Directors of the Woodbury Library. The library has also established branches in the town, which are currently being completed. The Woodbury Library is now open daily from 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.

Woodbury Public Library

Woodbury, Conn., May 30, 1966

The story of the library's growth is a story of dedication and hard work. The library has achieved success through the efforts of its members and volunteers, who have made it possible for the library to reach the level of success it has today.

Children's Library now one of the main attractions in Woodbury Public Library

In the library, children can enjoy the many books available, including classics such as "Harry Potter," "The Cat in the Hat," and "The Berenstain Bears." The library also offers a variety of educational programs and workshops, including storytelling sessions and art classes.

PLATO THE TRIAL OF SOCRATES AND TWO DIALOGUES

RIVERSIDE

In addition to the main library, there are branches located throughout the town. These branches provide a convenient and accessible location for people to borrow books and other materials.

HISTORY OF CLASSIC JAZZ

The library also hosts various events and programs throughout the year, including book signings, lectures, and workshops. These events are designed to engage and inspire individuals of all ages and backgrounds.

PLATO: THE TRIAL OF SOCRATES AND TWO DIALOGUES

The library's success is a testament to the dedication and hard work of its members and volunteers. The library continues to grow and evolve, ensuring that it remains a valuable resource for the community.

THE EUSTON REPUBLICAN-WEEKLY Woodbury, Conn., May 30, 1966

The library is open daily from 9:00 A.M. to 9:00 P.M.